Dear Colleagues,

The Residential Child Care Project is pleased to welcome you to our 2017 Regional Events designed to share what we have learned through evaluation and research efforts. In addition, we hope this provides opportunities for our UK and Irish colleagues to network and share insights into the complex issues that are challenging our work and our attempts to serve the best interests of children and families. We have scheduled 2 regional events that will take place on November 6, 2017 in Dublin, Ireland and repeated on November 9, 2017 in Doncaster, UK. These regional seminars will give us the opportunity to share what we have learned about trauma-informed programming from 2 studies, results on the impact of TCI for Family Care Providers training in a UK study, and the results of implementing the TCI system in a large UK organization. In addition, we will share preliminary results from our TCI fidelity work.

For those of you who are TCI trainers, these events are combined with a second day specifically designed for TCI trainers. The second day will look at the results from LSI surveys as well as provide opportunities for TCI trainers to share ideas for future editions of TCI and TCI for families. Of course, there will be the re-certification testing so that TCI trainers can apply for recertification.

We look forward to seeing you at one of these events.

Sincerely,

Martha J. Holden

Building Communities of Practice: Sharing What We Have Learned

INTENDED AUDIENCE

Agency executives and management staff, supervisors, social work and social care staff, direct care workers, teachers, TCI trainers, other interested organizations: universities, advocacy groups, government officials. NOTE: TCI trainers who are applying for re-certification need to attend both days.

PROGRAM

9:00 – 9:30 AM Registration / Coffee

9:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Translational Research

Presentation of a model of translational research that can have a significant and positive impact on out-of-home-care services for children and families.

Results from the Multi-Site Study Demonstrating the Success of Trauma Informed Programming

- Promoting stronger attachment between young people and their caregivers
- Reducing the frequency of serious behavioral incidents

Results from the No Wrong Door TCIF Training Evaluation

Evaluation of the TCIF training shows positive gains in participant knowledge and documents a link between TCIF skills and positive outcomes such as reduced homelessness, increased safety, and stronger relationships with young people.

Case Study of TCI Implementation in Doncaster England (Presentation on November 9 only)

The Hesley Group shares key learnings on the impact of TCI implementation and TCI data and how that was used to create a model of care.

Striving for Safer Uncertainty: Developing a TCI/CARE Governance Culture in Residential Care (Presentation on November 6 only)

The Northern Health and Social Care Trust will share key learning on their experiences in implementing TCI and CARE in their residential programs.

Case Study of CARE and TCI Implementation

When used together, CARE and TCI had an impact on the frequency and rate of restraints and medication in one multi-faceted child and family services agency.

TCI Fidelity Criteria and Assessment Process

Update on the current work on TCI fidelity reviews and TCI agency registration scheme. Input from agencies and trainers on future projects and directions based on changes in the field.
